Subject: YCCD Vision Statement--Your Choice!

Dear YCCD Colleagues:

It is wonderful to see everything in full swing for the fall semester!

As I noted at both the Columbia College In-Service Day and the MJC Institute Day, last spring the (Expanded) District Council participated in the YCCD Vision Planning Session. This expanded group was comprised of representatives from every constituency group as well as the YCCD Board of Trustees—every Trustee participated. The result was eleven (11) District Vision Statements. The expanded council then voted to select the final YCCD Vision Statement, and; as it turned out there was a tie between two statements. Rather than take the vote back out to the participants of the expanded council only, I thought it would be a great “participatory” opportunity for everyone to have a vote. As such, Graciela (Molina) will be sending out a Survey Monkey this week with the two statements. Please look for the Survey Monkey later this week and cast your vote for your favorite!

Wishing everyone a wonderful, productive semester.

Kind regards,

Joan
