ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE (ESL) PATHWAYS

MJC offers two different sequences for English learners – ESL for College & ESL for Life and Work. The first course offered in ESL for College (ESL 10) does not provide any first-language translation. If you are a beginning language learner, it is recommended you take the CASAS ESL Assessment Examination.

ESL for College

- College-Level English
  - ENGL 101*
  - ENGL 50
  - ENGL 49

Key
- Grammar Courses
- Reading/Composition Courses
- Spoken English Courses

*Required to earn an associate degree and/or transfer to a four-year university.

ESL for Life and Work

To move from the Life and Work noncredit sequence to the Life & Work 1-6 credit sequence, students will be required to submit a Prerequisite Challenge Form at the Literature & Language Arts division office.

Credit Sequence

1. ESL 6
2. ESL 5
3. ESL 4
4. ESL 3
5. ESL 2
6. ESL 1

Non-Credit Sequence

1. ESL 906
2. ESL 905
3. ESL 904
4. ESL 903
5. ESL 902
6. ESL 901

Beginning Language Learners should take the CASAS ESL Assessment Examination.

ESL for Life and Work courses are integrated skills in Listening/Speaking/Reading/Writing/Learning.

At any point in the Life and Work Sequence, students may complete the Accuplacer assessment to determine placement level in the "College" sequence.
