Policy

4400 Community Education

The Colleges of the District may offer community education or personal enrichment courses in subject matter areas that, in content or depth of treatment are not appropriate for College credit.

The community education program shall be designed to contribute to the physical, mental, moral, economic or civic development of the individuals or groups enrolled.

Community education courses shall be open for admission to adults and minors who can benefit from the programs.

No general fund monies may be expended to establish or maintain community education courses. Students involved in community education courses shall be charged a fee not to exceed the cost of maintaining the courses. Courses may also be offered for remuneration by contract or with contributions or donations of individuals or groups.

References:
Education Code Section 78300

Adopted: June 28, 2004

Revision Adopted: February 11, 2009