Recognizing the value of educational experiences in a foreign country, the Board of Trustees endorses and supports the concept of international education. Students at Yosemite Community College District will be provided the opportunity to study outside the United States.

Adopted: June 28, 2004