Connecting From Off-Campus

Log in for access to all of our article and research databases when you are away from campus

Why Log In?

Due to licensing restrictions, use of our databases is restricted to MJC students, faculty, and staff. If you're working from anywhere off campus, you need to log in to be recognized as an authorized user.

Once you click on the name of a database, simply enter your student number and six-digit birth date.

All of these resources are free for MJC students, faculty, and staff.
