1) Classified Employee of the Year Award Presentation
The California Community Colleges Board of Governors (BOG), the State Chancellor's Office, and the Foundation for California Community Colleges (FCCC) created the First Annual Classified Employees of the Year Award in 2009. This award recognizes outstanding classified staff through the community college system. YCCD nominations were previously submitted to the Chancellor. The YCCD Board of Trustees selected Lue Martin, Information Systems Support Specialist, and directed staff to forward that nomination to the BOG and FCCC.

4.7 ASCIP "Risk Management Pays" Award
YCCD, through the Valley Insurance Program Joint Powers Agency (VIPJPA), is a member of the Alliance of Schools for Cooperative Insurance Programs (ASCP). Each year ASCP recognizes one of its members with the "Risk Management Pays" incentive award for actively utilizing ASCP's risk management services. For the 2014-2015 fiscal year activities, ASCP intends to recognize the Yosemite Community College District for this honor. The award highlights the importance of sound risk management and the significant contributions that YCCD has made towards reducing the cost of risk. During 2014-2015, YCCD completed two safety and security assessments, attended three risk management and loss control educational programs, utilized the ASCP online training platform to train 58 employees, and utilized the Human Resources Hotline on several occasions. Russ O'Donnell, ASCP's Chief Operations Officer, presented a Certificate of Excellence and a $6,000 check to the Board of Trustees.
