

Modesto Junior College
Academic Senate
Resolution FL00-E: Adding Classes After Semester's End

Proposed by: Academic Senate Executive Board

WHEREAS, last year over two hundred petitions to add a course at or after semester's end were submitted and granted, and

WHEREAS, there is no funding from the state for students adding late, and

WHEREAS, there is some inequity associated with permitting a portion of a class to make the decision to formally enter a course after its completion date, and

WHEREAS, there is no current policy which determines the criteria for granting or denying petitions for late adds, and

THEREFORE, be it resolved, that the Academic Senate of Modesto Junior College request that a policy on late adds, which is sound academically and financially, be prepared by the Office of Matriculation, Admissions, and Records in consultation with the Petitions Committee and brought before the body.

First Reading: November 16, 2000

Final Action: January 25, 2001

Disposition: Carried

Submitted to Director of Matriculation for consideration and implementation.
