Modesto Junior College
Adjunct-At-Large Senator Candidate Statement

Hello, fellow adjunct instructors at MJC. My name is Hans Hauselmann and I am running for re-election to the position of Adjunct-at-Large Senator. Currently I teach in the BBSS Division as a history instructor and I am also active in teaching and designing the new First Time In College course (FTIC) that was relaunched in Summer 2016. I also teach part time for San Joaquin Delta Community College and online for Southern New Hampshire University. I have served as your representative for the past two years and worked as your advocate on the Academic Senate. In my capacity as Adjunct-at-Large senator I have had many conversations with fellow instructors and administrators dealing with student and faculty equity on our campus and hope to continue these conversations. In the next term, I hope to focus on issues dealing with adjunct professional development, online training for adjunct faculty, and furthering my work in student equity, specifically dealing with guided pathways and safe space training. I am confident that the work will not only benefit my fellow adjunct faculty, but will also benefit our students at MJC. Thank you for your consideration.

Candidate Statement for Adjunct At-Large Senator:

In an effort to represent adjunct faculty, increase institutional effectiveness, and making our institution more responsive to the variety of stakeholders, I would be honored to serve as Adjunct At-Large Senator for the upcoming term. I have been an instructor of history here at MJC for several years in the Business, Behavioral and Social Sciences Division. As a historian, I have always been drawn to the shared governance and particularly to the senate of our institution. My vision as an Adjunct At-Large Senator is to represent the interests of the Adjunct Faculty and participate in the Senate work in developing policies and procedures regarding curriculum, faculty development, and academic standards. I would also bring the unique and critical voice of adjunct faculty members I represent to the Senate and collaborate with fellow adjunct senators to represent the diversity of the adjunct faculty. I also want to help instructors, students and administrators who need support and encouragement as much as possible by participating in the Curriculum Committee, the Institutional Effectiveness and Planning Committee, and the Instruction Council. While the adjunct lifestyle is innately fragmented, I still believe I can achieve these goals and represent the important interests of Adjunct Faculty.

RE: Nomination for Adjunct At-Large Senator; Candidate Statement

My name is Michael Jackson. I am an Adjunct Counselor serving in Disabled Student Programs & Services since April 2016. It would be an honor to serve within the MJC Academic Senate during the Spring 2017 term to ensure appropriate representation for all Adjunct Faculty members. Adjunct faculty make significant contributions to MJC and add to our culture of excellence in both instruction and student services. I received my B.A. degree in Social Science and a Master of Arts degree in Psychology and I am currently studying Higher Education Leadership for Student Success. Student equity, student success, retention, and student support services remain a top priority and Adjunct faculty directly impact these objectives. I look forward to contributing to MJC in a meaningful way that will benefit both students and Adjunct faculty as the academic senate navigates both challenging and rewarding responsibilities that benefit our learning community.
