

Res: FL13-B
Recognition and Appreciation of Professor Charles Mullins

- Proposed by: MJC Academic Senate Executive Board
- Whereas, Charles Mullins was a dedicated member of the Modesto Junior College Academic Senate for several years, serving as a Senator from the Arts, Humanities, and Communications Divisions as both a part-time and full-time faculty member, and demonstrated exceptional leadership in his service on the MJC Academic Senate Executive Board as its Legislative Analyst from Fall 2007 to Spring 2009; and
- Whereas, Charles Mullins served on countless college-wide committees throughout his distinguished career at Modesto Junior College, bringing both common sense and uncommonly good humor to meetings in sore need of both; and
- Whereas, Charles Mullins was a devoted member of the Arts, Humanities, and Communications Division and the Department of Speech Communication, who provided invaluable support for his division's numerous excellent and award-winning theater productions, concerts: and forensics program; and
- Whereas, Charles Mullins helped countless thousands of students to understand the essential and sometimes frightening subject of Speech Communication, and was profoundly appreciated by them;
- Therefore, Be it resolved that the Academic Senate of Modesto Junior College is grateful to Professor Charles Mullins for his dedication to the students at Modesto Junior College and the faculty he served for many years and mourns his loss as a devoted friend, colleague, and faculty leader whose engaging spirit will be sorely missed.
