Modesto Junior College regulations permits work completed at MJC which is substandard and not reflective of a student's present scholastic ability and level of performance to be disregarded. The approved course grades will be disregarded in the computation of the grade point average under the following conditions:

- At least 1 year must have elapsed from the time the course work to be disregarded was completed.
- Must have completed at least 15 units of coursework (after the coursework to be disregarded was completed) either at MJC or another institution. Evidence of recent academic ability includes the following:
 - 15 to 29 semester units with a 3.0 GPA
 - 30 to 44 semester units with a 2.5 GPA
 - 45 or more semester units with a 2.0 GPA

Please note: If you have completed coursework at another institution, list the college(s) name and attach official transcripts.
