

Application for Course Audit

AUDITING A CLASS:

California Educational Code, Section 76370 states the governing board of a community college district may authorize a person to audit a community college course and may charge that person a fee pursuant to this section.

- If a fee for auditing is charged, it shall not exceed fifteen dollars ($15) per unit, per semester. The governing board shall proportionately adjust the amount of fee for term lengths based upon a quarter system or other alternative system approved pursuant to regulations of the board of governors, and shall also proportionately adjust the amount of the fee for summer sessions, intersession, and other short-term courses. In making these adjustments, the governing board may round the per unit fee and the per term or per session fee to the nearest dollar.
- Students enrolled in classes to receive credit for 10 or more semester credit units shall not be charged a fee to audit three or fewer semester units per semester.
- Students auditing a course must meet the repetition limit for credit courses.
- No student auditing a course shall be permitted to change his or her enrollment in that course to receive credit for the course.
- Priority in a class enrollment shall be given to students desiring to take the course for credit towards a degree or certificate.
- Classroom attendance or students auditing a course shall not be included in computing the apportionment due to a community college district.

STEPS TO COMPLETE COURSE AUDIT FORM:

1. Student requests and completes the STUDENT portion of the form. Enrollment Services completes the eligibility section of the form.
2. Student takes the form to the appropriate instructor to complete the INSTRUCTOR portion of the form. Requires Instructor's signature.
3. Student takes and leaves the course audit form at the Division Office to request the set-up of an audit section. If the audit section has been approved, the Division Office will create an audit course and the Dean will sign their approval. Requires Dean's signature.
4. Student takes the completed form with the appropriate signatures to the Business Services Office for payment. Please note: there may be additional fees once student is enrolled in the class.
5. Student then takes the completed form to the Enrollment Services Office for final processing.
6. Student acknowledges that there will be no records kept with MJC of their attendance in this class, no final grade will be issued, and student will not receive credit for this class.
