UndocuJoy: Shifting the Perspective of Undocumented Representation

Yosimar Reyes is a nationally-acclaimed Poet and Public Speaker. Born in Guerrero, Mexico, and raised in Eastside San Jose, Reyes explores the themes of migration and sexuality in his work. The Advocate named Reyes one of "13 LGBT Latinos Changing the World" and Remezcla included Reyes on their list of "10 Up And Coming Latinx Poets You Need To Know."He is a LAMBDA Literary Fellow as well as the recipient of the Undocupoets Fellowship. Reyes previously served as Artist-in-Residence at the media and culture organization, Define American www.defineamerican.com

Reyes has toured and presented at university campuses across the United States. He is currently working on his one-man show, "Prieto," to premiere in the near future. Reyes holds a B.A in Creative Writing from San Francisco State University.

Join us on Thursday, 10/17/19
MJC's East Campus
FORUM, RM. 110
8:20AM-9:20AM

California Community Colleges
Support Undocumented Students

Yosimar is working to change the narrative of undocumented people in the US by shifting the perspective from stories entrenched in pain to stories focused on undocumented people's joy, pleasure, and commitment to thriving.

Co-Sponsored by:

Arts, Humanities & Communication, Comunidad, Counseling, English Language Welcome Center, English Learners Department, Latina Leadership Network, Literature & Language Arts, Library Learning Center, MEChA, UndocuAlly Network

Funded by: ASMJC Grant

www.YosimarReyes.com

UndocuAlly
Modesto Junior College